From the Principal's Desk

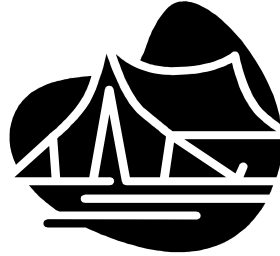

Each year the staff selects a theme for the school year. This year's theme is "as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord" from Joshua 24:15. At a small school such as Immanuel, we are like a family and the school is a lot like a home. We spend as much of our waking time at school as at home. We also spend nearly as much time with our teachers and peers as our parents or family—perhaps even more!

This year we at Immanuel will be working on learning to serve the Lord. We will accomplish this by using the gifts that God has given us to serve Him, to serve our family (both biological and school), and to serve the community. The teachers and I will strive to set living examples of service for the students. I hope that you will join us in this endeavor. With the help of God, may it be so.

In Christ,
Lana J. Hahn

FROM THE SPORTS DESK...

The Week That Was

The girls' volleyball team began practicing for the upcoming season. Expectations are high. Even after losing four eighth grade starters, the Lady Cardinals return a strong, experienced nucleus and have a few promising new comers. The first four practices went extremely well. Energy levels have been high and teamwork is evolving. The girls seemed prime and ready to go.

In gym class, the students have been running cross country. This is a great way to get in shape and will prepare those who are participating in the Walther cross country meet in a couple of weeks.
