“Today’s kids have gained a reputation of being disrespectful. And adults aren’t the only target—kids lack respect for property, each other, even themselves. Why is a lack of respect such a big problem?” (Kamrath). Take a look at the article entitled Respect—Not! Posted at <http://www.childrensministry.com/ArticlePrint.asp?ID=1019>. I believe you will find the article quite interesting as the author challenges us to “cultivate respect in a field of rudeness.”

From the Principal’s Desk

Thank you for sharing in Lutheran School’s Week and especially our “grand” person’s day celebration. Grandparents and grandchildren are a special gift from God. There is no other relationship quite the same.

Enjoy the quotes below:

Grandmas are moms with lots of frosting. ~Author Unknown

What a bargain grandchildren are! I give them my loose change, and they give me a million dollars' worth of pleasure. ~Gene Perret

Grandmothers are just antique little girls. ~Author Unknown

Grandfathers are just antique little boys. ~Author Unknown

Perfect love sometimes does not come until the first grandchild. ~Welsh Proverb

A child needs a grandparent, anybody's grandparent, to grow a little more securely into an unfamiliar world. ~Charles and Ann Morse

What children need most are the essentials that grandparents provide in abundance. They give unconditional love, kindness, patience, humor, comfort, lessons in life. And, most importantly, cookies. ~Rudolph Giuliani

A house needs a grandma in it. ~Louisa May Alcott

Our grandchildren accept us for ourselves, without rebuke or effort to change us, as no one in our entire lives has ever done, not our parents, siblings, spouses, friends - and hardly ever our own grown children. ~Ruth Goode

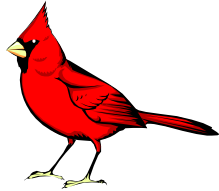

When a child is born, so are grandmothers. ~Judith Levy

Never have children, only grandchildren. ~Gore Vidal

There's no place like home except Grandma's. ~Author Unknown
