The Week That Was

LADY CARDINALS WIN CHAMPIONSHIP AT WALTHER TOURNAMENT!!

This past weekend the girls' basketball team traveled to Melrose Park to compete in the Walther Tournament. They played three games and when all was said and done they finished with a 3-0 record and were crowned tournament champions. Their first game was against Grace, River Forest who they had lost to by one point a week earlier. This time the shoe was on the other foot. Thanks to their outstanding defense and a balanced scoring attack, the Lady Cardinals were victorious 11-5. One key was Miranda Lyke's fourth quarter basket that gave the Cardinals some breathing room. In the second round Immanuel faced St. Peter, Schaumburg. Behind the inside scoring of Amber and Arielle Reese the Lady Cardinals jumped out to a quick lead they wouldn't relinquish. Their defense was outstanding, holding Schaumburg scoreless through three quarters. When you put these two factors together, it added up to an 18-8 victory for the Lady Cardinals. Fourth grader Emani Washington and third grader Jade Link came off the bench and contributed valuable minutes. Despite her size Jade is quickly becoming an outstanding defensive player. In the championship game the Lady Cardinals squared off with the Eagles from St. John, Lombard. This was one of the best games of the tournament. The Lady Cardinals came out controlled the tempo and let their defense set the pace. The play was physical and intense. After jumping out to a 6-0 halftime lead the Cardinals saw the Eagles score 6 straight to cut the lead to 8-6. It was then that the Lady Cardinals buckled down and their defense reestablished itself. Tailar Carpenter stepped up and hit a huge three-pointer in the third quarter to stop the Eagle's run and give the Lady Cardinals a huge boost. Lillian Brown, who guided the Lady Cardinal attack all weekend, stepped up and carried the offensive load in the fourth quarter. By combining great team defense, outstanding hustle and timely scoring the Lady Cardinals found themselves crowned tournament champions.

LADY CARDINALS SOAR AT STATE!!

The State Tournament kicked off on Friday, March 5th. After taking care of the pre-tournament requirements, registration, pictures and lunch, the Lady Cardinals took to the court for their first round game against St. John, Lombard. The Lady Cardinals hit the court flying and raced to a 13-5 half time lead. Their first half pace and foul trouble caught up with them in the third quarter and their lead evaporated. They regrouped in the fourth quarter only to fall one point short. The final score: Lombard 27 – Hillside 26. Dratonyai Ratcliff and Shana Nelson led the defensive charge that shut down one of the best offensive guards in the tournament. Chanel Brown and Dratonyai Ratcliff paced the Hillside attack with 11 and 9 points respectively.

The Lady Cardinals returned to the court on Saturday morning to face Immanuel, Crystal Lake. While the Lady Cardinals controlled the game from the opening tip, they couldn't shake Crystal Lake until the fourth quarter. Fantasia Williams stepped up huge scoring four early points and bring energy to the defense. Chanel Brown once again paced the offensive attack that saw five Lady Cardinals break into the scoring column.

In the consolation semi-finals, the Lady Cardinals squared off with Immanuel, Palatine. The Bobcats came into the tournament seeded fourth and had also been upset in the first round. The Lady Cardinals got off to a rough start in this one and found themselves trailing by twenty at half time. After the break, they got their act together and played a strong second half. When some teams would have quit, the Lady Cardinals stepped up and showed everyone what they are made of. Once again, Chanel Brown and Dratonyai Ratcliff paced the offensive attack.

The Lady Cardinals finished the 2010 State Tournament in 11th place with a final record of 1 win and 2 losses.

Overall, for a school making their first appearance in the State Tournament, the weekend was a huge success. The Lady Cardinals did an awesome job of representing themselves, representing their school and glorifying God for the abilities that he gave them. They put Immanuel on the basketball map and raised the par for the future generations.

CONGRATULATIONS 2009-2010 LADY CARDINALS – EXCELLENT JOB

YOU ARE ALL TRULY CHAMPIONS!!!!

“Whatsoever You Do”

From the Principal’s Desk

Thank you for sharing in Lutheran School’s Week and especially our “grand” person’s day celebration. We counted over 50 guests! Grandparents and grandchildren are a special gift from God. There is no other relationship quite the same. We thank God for all the special people He places in our lives.

Thank you for your support of the book fair. The school has earned approximately $400 in books for the classrooms and library. Thanks also to the many volunteers working the sale. We couldn’t do it without you.

The staff would like to thank the P.T.L. for showing appreciation for them throughout Lutheran Schools Week. The thoughtful gifts and delicious treats were greatly appreciated and enjoyed by all.

In Christ,

Lana J. Hahn
